

Doo-wop concert shakes, rattles and rolls

Originally published in the Oceanside Palisades Park
May 24, 2007 HERALD

THE DEL-VIKINGS wowed the crowd at the first "Shake, Rattle and Roll" concert held at Oceanside High School. The show was a fundraiser for the community.

FREDDY "BOOM BOOM" CANNON was the first performer that night to lure the audience onto the makeshift dance floor in the auditorium.

They were dancing in the aisles at the Oceanside High School auditorium on Saturday night, May 12.

The Oceanside Community Service, in conjunction with the Oceanside Department of Community Activities, hosted the "Shake, Rattle & Roll" Doo-Wop fundraising concert. The evening's star-studded lineup, provided by Friend Entertainment Ltd., featured doo-wop singing groups performing the hit music of the 50s and 60s. The house was rockin' to the sounds of Freddy "Boom-Boom" Cannon, Vito Picone and the Elegants, Frankie Lymon's "Legendary" Teenagers, The Del-Vikings and Cleveland Still and the Dubs.

Golden oldies such as "Palisades Park," "Why do Fools Fall in Love" and a rousing version of "Shake, Rattle & Roll" brought the concert-goers to their feet, proving that doo-wop is alive and well in Oceanside.

Photos by David Stam/Herald

PEOPLE WERE DANCING in the aisles to Frankie Lymon's Legendary Teenagers.

